

B&L Job Application

Our business success depends on good people working here. We are looking for people who have matured to become self-managed, disciplined, have clear goals and hunger for personal growth. Work here is often "fun" but our goal of good customer service requires that our customers have more "fun." To achieve this, you will be required to "happily" take on the problems of our customers and effectively resolve them. You will find this to be extremely demanding. Strong memory skills, sensitivity to details and ability to juggle multiple tasks will be needed. You will need to be quick witted, teachable, friendly, with a strong sense of humor. If you have made a habit of serving others, you will likely be successfully employed. Impeccable customer service is FAST, ACCURATE, & Friendly and is delivered in a CLEAN, PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT.

Applications containing any unanswered questions will not be considered for employment. We do check references.
